Agreement and License Grants

Thank you for choosing the Office Timeline Add-in. This is a legal agreement between Office Timeline LLC and the party that downloads, installs and/or uses the Office Timeline Add-in software, each of whom accepts the terms of this agreement for herself, himself or itself. Office Timeline Add-in software is licensed and not sold, and the rights to use the software are set forth in this agreement. These license terms apply to the Office Timeline Add-in and any Office Timeline updates, supplements, Internet-based services, and support services.

Acceptance of these terms will constitute a legally binding agreement by and between Office Timeline LLC and you, the licensee. According to the terms herein and/or your installation, use of the software also signifies your agreement to be legally bound by these terms and conditions. As described below, using some features also operates as your consent to the transmission of certain standard computer information for Internet-based services. If you do not accept this agreement or do not want to be bound by these terms, you should not install or use the software and you shall not have any licensee rights. If you comply with these license terms, you have the rights below.

The Office Timeline Add-in software is protected by intellectual property laws. You are granted certain limited rights to install and use the software. You acknowledge and agree not to use the software in a manner that violates any applicable law, regulation or this agreement.

Office Timeline Add-in Free Edition. Free Edition licenses are granted to individuals and businesses who install the software. Office Timeline Add-in Free Edition licenses may be used on personal and corporate computers. The license has no run-time limitations and it can be installed on more than one machine.

Premium Office Timeline Add-in Editions. Premium licenses are granted to individuals or businesses who purchase them. The licenses are granted per user and each user of a premium Office Timeline Edition must have a license. The software can be deployed centrally and distributed across an enterprise to licensed users. The license grants are not transferrable to any third party.
